KANSAS ACADEMY OF FAMILY PHYSICIANS

CARING FOR KANSANS

About the 2017-18 President

John Feehan MD, FAAFP of Olathe, Kansas, was installed on June 9, 2017 as the 69th president of the Kansas Academy of Family Physicians.

Dr. John Feehan celebrates 30 years of practicing at Olathe Family Practice this year. He has held numerous leadership positions with Olathe Medical Center, including President of the Medical Staff. He facilitated the introduction of a Medical Ethics Committee, chairing it for eight years and has represented primary care on two insurance boards.

He led Olathe Family Practice in becoming the second NCQA certified Patient Centered Medical Home in Kansas. A champion of EHR, he is the lead physician of his practice in becoming a CPC+ site.

Dr. Feehan attended the University of Kansas earning degrees in Chemistry and Biology. He received his medical degree from the University of Kansas Medical Center, Kansas City and completed his residency in Family Medicine at Goppert Family Medicine in Kansas City.

Dr. Feehan first served as a KAFP District Director in 2008. In 2014 he was elected to a 5-year-term on the Executive Committee, currently serving as 2017-18 Board President. His hobbies include camping, marathons/triathlons, and playing the bagpipes, serving as the quartermaster of Kansas City St. Andrew's Pipes and Drums. Dr. Feehan and his wife, Deb, have four children. He credits Deb, his faith and family as his balance in life.

About the Kansas Academy of Family Physicians

The Kansas Academy of Family Physicians is the largest medical specialty society in the state, with a total of 1,630 members. The mission of the Kansas Academy of Family Physicians is to promote access to, and excellence in, health care for all Kansans through education and advocacy for family physicians and their patients. The KAFP is affiliated with the American Academy of Family Physicians, the national association for family physicians.
