Chapter IV, Election of Officers and Directors

Section 1a. At least sixty (60) days before one meeting of the general membership each year the nominating committee, consisting of the president-elect, vice-president and president shall prepare nominations for vacancies for the offices of president-elect, vice-president, secretary, AAFP delegate, AAFP alternate delegate and, treasurer. Nothing in these bylaws shall prevent nominations for the above offices to be submitted from the general membership within a published amount of time determined by the board once the slate is published ~~from the floor at that meeting~~. Election of these offices shall be by majority vote of the members submitted electronically ~~present and voting at the meeting~~.

Section 1b. Nominations for district directors and faculty representatives shall be solicited by the nominating committee. The nominating committee shall prepare a separate ballot for each district in which an election is to be held and for the faculty representatives. The ballots for district directors shall contain names as solicited by the nominating committee of members whose practice is located in the geographic area of the district. The election shall be accomplished by mailing a ballot to all members in the district ~~electronic vote to all members in the district~~, however nothing shall prevent members of a district from electing a district director whose name is not on the ballot. The ballots for faculty representatives shall be handled as stated in section 1 e of this chapter. This election procedure shall be completed by August 1 at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting of the general membership at which other officers are elected.

Chapter IV, Election of Officers and Directors

Section 1c. The resident director shall be selected by the residents.

Section 1d. The student director shall be selected by the students.

Section 1e. The nominating committee shall prepare a slate of candidates ~~ballots~~ for the faculty representatives for electronic vote by the membership. One faculty representative shall be selected by the full-time family medicine faculty who hold teaching appointments within the Department of Family and Community Medicine at the Wichita campus. The other faculty representative shall be selected by the full-time family medicine faculty who hold teaching appointments within the Department of Family Medicine at the Kansas City campus.

Chapter VIII, Amendments

Section 1. Any five or more members or a special committee may propose amendments to these Bylaws by submitting the same to the executive vice president in writing, at least sixty (60) days prior to any regular or special meeting. Written or printed notice of such amendments shall be given by the executive vice president to all members at least thirty (30) days prior to ~~the meeting~~ an electronic vote for which the amendments are to be considered. An affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members present who participate in the vote ~~and voting~~ shall constitute adoption. Amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws of this chapter shall be submitted in writing to the American Academy of Family Physicians not later than 30 days following adoption. Those amendments relating solely to the internal structure and organization of the constituent chapter and which do not address issues specifically addressed in the Bylaws of the AAFP, may be implemented immediately upon adoption by the constituent chapter, but shall be subject to review by the Board of Directors of the AAFP. Amendments other than those addressed in the preceding sentence shall not be of any force or effect until they have been approved by the Board of Directors of the AAFP; provided, however, that if the AAFP Board fails to provide written objection to any amendment within 90 days of receiving such amendment, it may be considered to be approved.

Chapter X, Annual Report

Section 1. The Directors will present a balance sheet, together with a statement of the income and profit loss for the fiscal year ~~at the meeting of the general membership~~ electronically to the membership within a reasonable amount of time following the end of the fiscal year.
